

Read Across Manzanita Week

February 26th to March 2nd

March 2nd is Read Across America Day in honor of Dr. Seuss

Dr. Seuss was born in March

On the second day in fact

This year we'll celebrate his birthday

For five days to be exact

Monday come with crazy hats

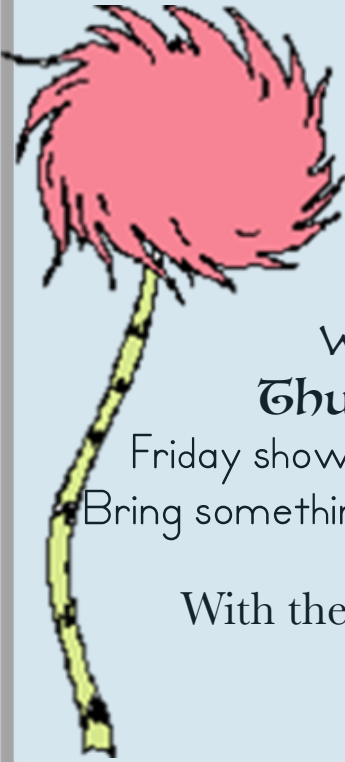

Tuesday come wearing green

WEDNESDAY SHOW YOUR SILLY SOCKS

Thursday shirts from places you have seen

Friday show your school spirit and something stylish, with a pocket

Bring something to put in there: a tiny stuffed bear, a dog, or a wocket

With these special dress up days, we'll honor his memory

And all the great stories

He wrote for you and me

You are invited to show your love of reading and all-things Seuss-inspired by dressing up on the following days:

Monday, Feb. 26 - Wear a crazy hat to honor Cat in the Hat

Tuesday, Feb. 27 - Wear green to honor Green Eggs and Ham

Wednesday, Feb. 28 - Wear silly, crazy socks to honor Fox in Socks

Thursday, March 1 - Wear a t-shirt with the name of a place you've been to honor Oh, the Places You'll Go

Friday, March 2 - Show your school spirit with red and blue. Bring a special stuffed buddy to read to as well. Wear a shirt or pants with pockets to honor There's a Wocket in my Pocket.

REMINDER:

Friday, March 2nd

Come to our

Reading Roundup from 4:30-6:30

and visit the

Book Fair from 4:00-7:00
